In all instances the reconciliation should be based on the appropriate fortnightly salary at the time the leave was taken.
 - (v) An Employee taking annual leave in advance shall be advised of the requirements of this section prior to the Employee proceeding on such leave.

- (5) An Employee may withdraw from this arrangement prior to completing a four-year period by written notice. The Employee will receive a lump sum payment of salary forgone to that time but will not be entitled to equivalent absence from duty.

- (7) A salary packaging arrangement cannot increase the costs to the Employer of employing an individual.
- (8) A salary packaging arrangement is to provide that the amount of any taxes, penalties or other costs for which the Employer or Employee is or may become liable for and are related to the salary packaging arrangement, shall be borne in full by the Employee.

- (4) For the purposes of this clause "continuous service", except where an increment is payable according to age, shall not include:

16. - HOURS

- (1) The ordinary working hours for Employees shall not exceed 60 hours per 4 week cycle to be worked Monday to Sunday inclusive.
- (2) Where agreement is reached between the Employee and the supervisor more than the maximum of 60 hours in a four week cycle may be worked in which event payment shall be at the ordinary hourly rate for all hours worked unless by agreement in writing between the supervisor and the Employee the hours in excess of 60 in a four week cycle are credited as time off in lieu at ordinary rates in the next monthly period.

17. - HIGHER DUTIES ALLOWANCE

- (1) Subject to subclause (2) of this clause an Employee who is directed by the Employer to act in an office which is classified higher than the Employee's own substantive office and who performs the full duties and accepts the full responsibility of the higher office for a continuous period of five (5) consecutive working days or more, shall, subject to the provisions of this clause, be paid an allowance equal to the difference between the Employee's own salary and the salary the Employee would receive if the Employee was permanently appointed to the office in which the Employee is so directed to act.
- (2)
 - (a) An Employee who is directed to act in a higher classified office but who is not required to carry out the full duties of the position and/or accept the full responsibilities, shall be paid such proportion of the allowance provided for in subclause (1) of this clause as the duties and responsibilities performed bear to the full duties and responsibilities of the higher office. Provided that the Employee shall be informed, prior to the commencement of acting in the higher classified office, of the duties to be carried out, the responsibilities to be accepted and the allowance to be paid.

- (b) The allowance paid may be adjusted during the period of higher duties.
- (3) Where the full duties of a higher office are temporarily performed by two (2) or more Employees they shall each be paid an allowance as determined by the Employer.
- (4) Where an Employee is directed to act in an office which has an incremental range of salaries such Employee shall be entitled to receive an increase in higher duties allowance equivalent to the annual increment the Employee would have received had the Employee been permanently appointed to such office: provided that acting service with allowances for acting in offices for the same classification or higher than the office during the 18 months preceding the commencement of so acting shall aggregate as qualifying service towards such an increase in the allowance.
- (5) Where an Employee who has qualified for payment of higher duties allowance under this clause is required to act in another office or other offices classified higher than the Employee's own for periods less than five (5) working days without any break in acting service, such Employee shall be paid higher duties allowance for such periods: provided that payment shall be made at the highest rate the Employee has been paid during the term of continuous acting or at the rate applicable to the office in which the Employee is currently acting – whichever is the lesser.
- (6) Where Employees in receipt of a higher duties allowance proceed on:
 - (a) a period of annual leave in excess of the normal, such Employees shall only receive payment of such allowance for the period of normal annual leave; and
 - (b) a period of any other approved leave of absence of more than four (4) weeks, such Employees shall not be entitled to receive payment of such allowance for the whole or any part of the period of such leave.
- (7) For the purpose of this clause "normal annual leave" shall mean the annual period of recreation leave as prescribed in Clause 18 - Annual Leave of this Award.

- (1)
 - (a) Each Employee is entitled to four weeks leave for each year of service. Annual leave shall be calculated on a calendar year basis commencing on January 1 in each year.
 - (b) An Employee may take annual leave during the calendar year in which it accrues, but the time during which the leave may be taken is subject to the approval of the Employer.
 - (c) An Employee who is first appointed after January 1 is entitled to pro rata annual leave for that year in accordance with the formula contained in subclause (2) of this clause.
- (2) Entitlement

At the end of each calendar day of the year the Employee will accrue 0.416 hours of paid annual leave provided the maximum accrual will not exceed 152 hours for each completed calendar year of service.
 - (b) Where Employers have systems in place which record and report pro rata accrual of annual leave entitlements in a manner other than prescribed by this clause, that method of accrual may continue provided the system provides the same accrual over a full year. Employers must ensure that upon the cessation of employment, all pro rata annual leave entitlements accrued are equivalent to the pro rata annual leave entitlement provided by paragraph 18 (2) (a).
- (3) Annual leave shall be taken in one period unless otherwise approved by the Employer.

- (4) On written application, an Employee shall be paid salary in advance when proceeding on annual leave.
