Dry Cleaning and Laundry Award 1979

1. - TITLE

This award shall be known as the Dry Cleaning and Laundry Award 1979 and replaces Award No. 13 of 1941 as amended.

1B. - MINIMUM ADULT AWARD WAGE

(1) No employee aged 21 or more shall be paid less than the minimum adult award wage unless otherwise provided by this clause.

(2) The minimum adult award wage for full-time employees aged 21 or more is $665.90 per week payable on and from the commencement of the first pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

(3) The minimum adult award wage is deemed to include all State Wage order adjustments from State Wage Case Decisions.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in this clause adults employed as casuals, part-time employees or piece workers or employees who are remunerated wholly on the basis of payment by result shall not be paid less than pro rata the minimum adult award wage according to the hours worked.

(5) Employees under the age of 21 shall be paid no less than the wage determined by applying the percentage prescribed in the junior rates provision in this award to the minimum adult award wage.

(6) The minimum adult award wage shall not apply to apprentices, employees engaged on traineeships or Jobskill placements or employed under the Commonwealth Government Supported Wage System or to other categories of employees who by prescription are paid less than the minimum award rate, provided that no employee shall be paid less than any applicable minimum rate of pay prescribed by the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993.

(7) Liberty to apply is reserved in relation to any special category of employees not included here or otherwise in relation to the application of the minimum adult award wage.

(8) Subject to this clause the minimum adult award wage shall –

(a) Apply to all work in ordinary hours.

(b) Apply to the calculation of overtime and all other penalty rates, superannuation, payments during any period of paid leave and for all purposes of this award.

(9) Minimum Adult Award Wage

The rates of pay in this award include the minimum weekly wage for employees aged 21 or more payable under the 2014 State Wage order decision. Any increase arising from the insertion of the minimum wage will be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the award. Such above award payments include wages payable pursuant to enterprise agreements, consent awards or award variations to give effect to enterprise agreements and over award arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

Increases under previous State Wage Case Principles or under the current Statement of Principles, excepting those resulting from enterprise agreements, are not to be used to offset the minimum wage.

(10) Adult Apprentices

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this clause, an apprentice, 21 years of age or more, shall not be paid less than $572.20 per week on and from the commencement of the first pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

(b) The rate paid in the paragraph above to an apprentice 21 years of age or more is payable on superannuation and during any period of paid leave prescribed by this award.

(c) Where in this award an additional rate is expressed as a percentage, fraction or multiple of the ordinary rate of pay, it shall be calculated upon the rate prescribed in this award for the actual year of apprenticeship.

(d) Nothing in this clause shall operate to reduce the rate of pay fixed by the award for an adult apprentice in force immediately prior to 5 June 2003.

(2) Notice of Termination by Employer

(a) The employment of any employee (other than a casual employee, who shall be engaged by the hour) may be terminated by the following notice period, provided that an employee has not been dismissed on the grounds of serious misconduct in which case shall only be paid up to the time of dismissal.

PERIOD OF CONTINUOUS SERVICE	PERIOD OF NOTICE

Less than 1 year	1 week
1 year but less than 3 years	2 weeks
3 years but less than 5 years	3 weeks
5 years and over	4 weeks

(b) An employee who at the time of being given notice is over 45 years of age and has completed two years' continuous service, shall be entitled to one week's additional notice.

(c) Payment in lieu of the notice prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subclause shall be made if the appropriate notice period is not given or required to be worked. The employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.

(d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the employer shall pay the employee the ordinary wages for the period of notice had the employment not been terminated or payment in lieu of notice shall be calculated using the employee's weekly ordinary time earnings.

(3) Notice of Termination by Employee

One weeks notice shall be necessary for an employee to terminate his or her engagement or the forfeiture or payment of one week's pay by the employee to the employer in lieu of notice.

(4) Termination, Redundancy or Introduction of Change

In circumstances of termination, redundancy or introduction of change, employees are entitled to a statement of employment, job search leave, consultation, redundancy pay and other matters as provided in the General Order 2005 WAIRC 01715 (85(WAIG)1667), as amended, varied or replaced from time to time.

8. - TYPES OF EMPLOYMENT

Employees under this award must be engaged as full-time, part-time or casual officers. At the time of engagement, an employer will inform each employee of the terms of their engagement, and in particular stipulate whether they are full-time, part-time or casual. This advice must be confirmed in writing within two weeks of commencement of employment.

(1) Full-time employees

(a) Full-time employees will be engaged for an average of thirty-eight hours per week.

(2) Part-time employees

(a) An employer may employ part-time employees in any classification in this award.

(b) A part-time employee is an employee who:

(i) works less than full-time hours of 38 per week; and

(ii) has reasonably predictable hours of work; and

(iii) receives, on a pro rata basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of full-time employees who do the same kind of work.

(c) At the time of engagement the employer and the part-time employee will agree in writing, on a regular pattern of work, specifying at least the hours worked each day, which days of the week the employee will work and the actual starting and finishing times each day.

(d) Any agreed variation to the regular pattern of work will be recorded in writing.

(e) An employer is required to roster a part-time employee for a minimum of three (3) consecutive hours on any shift.

(f) An employee who does not meet the definition of a part-time employee and who is not a full-time employee will be paid as a casual employee in accordance with sub clause 3.

(g) All time worked in excess of the hours as mutually arranged will be overtime and paid for at the rates prescribed in clause 12 - Overtime, of this award.

(h) A part-time employee employed under the provisions of this clause must be paid for ordinary hours worked at the rate of 1/38th of the weekly rate prescribed for the class of work performed.

(3) Casual Employees

(a) A casual employee is to be one engaged and paid as such. A casual employee for working ordinary time shall be paid an hourly rate calculated on the basis of one thirty-eighth of the weekly award wage prescribed in clause 30 for the work being performed plus a casual loading of 20 per cent in lieu of sick leave, annual leave and public holidays.

(b) A casual employee shall be employed for a minimum of three (3) consecutive hours on each occasion.

(c) A casual employee shall not be engaged for periods totalling in excess of eight weeks in any 12 month period without the approval of the Union.

(d) The provisions of paragraph (c) of this subclause shall not apply to employees engaged for a specific period of time to replace a designated person where the period of that replacement work does not exceed 13 weeks. The period of time for which the replacement employee is engaged together with any other special conditions of employment shall be confirmed in writing at the time of appointment.

9. - HOURS OF WORK

(1) The ordinary working week shall be no greater than 38 hours worked in accordance with subclause (2) of this clause.

(2) (a) Ordinary hours of work shall be worked between 7.00am and 7.00pm Monday to Friday, 7.00am and 9.00pm on a "prescribed late night shopping night/s" in an area or locality covered by this award, and 7.00am and 5.00pm on Saturdays.

(b) No employee shall work more than nine hours without payment of overtime in non-package plants and ten hours without payment of overtime in package plants.

(c) Starting and finishing times of each employee shall be fixed by the employer and shall not be altered by the employer, except in a case of emergency, unless a week's notice of such change has been given to the employee.

(d) Where any ordinary hours of work are performed by a weekly employee after 7.00pm and before 9.00pm on a "prescribed late night shopping night/s" in an area or locality covered by this award and between 7.00am and 12.00pm on a Saturday, an employer shall pay a penalty of 25 percent above the wage rate prescribed in Clause 30. - Wages of this award.

(e) Where ordinary hours of work are performed by a weekly employee between 12.00pm and 5.00pm on a Saturday, an employer shall pay to an employee a penalty of 50 per cent above the wage rate prescribed in Clause 30. - Wages of this award.

(f) Any other starting or finishing times may be agreed upon by the employer and employee concerned and assented to by the union in writing.

(g) The usual working hours shall be prominently displayed in each work room or factory depot.

(h) An employer who requires employees in package plants to work the 38 ordinary hours in one week within four days Monday to Friday inclusive shall inform the employee at least seven days prior to commencement of that working week of the days upon which they are rostered to work and the days on which they are rostered off.

(i) Provided that where the regular late night shopping night/s is a public holiday/s and another night/s is nominated, the prescribed late night shopping hours shall apply.

(3) (a) Subject to the daily limitations prescribed in (a) and (b) of this subclause, and agreement between an employer and a majority of the workers the hours of work on an establishment may be by any one of the following methods:-

(i) By working shorter hours on one or more days of each week; or

(ii) By fixing a day on which all workers will be off during a particular work cycle; or

(iii) By rostering workers off on various days of the week during a particular work cycle.

(b) Where workers are entitled to a rostered day or days off in accordance with paragraph (ii) or (iii) of (d) of this subclause, the employer shall notify such workers not less than four weeks in advance of the weekday he or she is to take off. Where a worker has not accumulated a day's entitlement when a rostered day off occurs, such worker for that day, shall receive payment for the actual time already accrued.

(c) Where the employer and workers agree rostered days off may accumulate to a maximum of four days which shall be taken in one continuous period within one month of such accrual.

(d) Where an arrangement is made in accordance with this clause, starting and finishing times and the daily and weekly hours so determined shall constitute the ordinary working hours and work performed outside or in excess of such times and hours will constitute overtime for the purposes of this Award.

(e) (i) An employer, with the agreement of the majority of workers concerned, may substitute the day a worker is to take off in accordance with any arrangement pursuant to (a) of this subclause, for another day in the case of a breakdown in machinery or a failure or shortage of electric power or to meet the requirements of the business in the event of rush orders or some other emergency situation.

(ii) An employer with the agreement of the employee concerned, may substitute the day that employee is to take off for another day.

(4) In the event of a dispute over the implementation of the 38 hour week, the following procedures shall be followed -

(a) Consultation shall take place within the particular establishment concerned.

(b) If the dispute is not resolved at establishment level, it shall be the subject of discussions between the Union and the employer concerned.

(c) In the event of a dispute over the implementation of the 38 hour week the matter may be referred to the Western Australian Industrial Relations Commission.

10. - MEAL INTERVALS AND REST PERIODS

(1) Meal Breaks.

Each employee shall be granted a meal interval of not less than thirty minutes to be commenced not later than five hours of commencing duty.

Provided that where it is not possible to grant the meal interval on any day, the said meal interval shall be treated as time worked and paid at the rate for the day plus a loading of fifty per cent upon the ordinary weekly rate, until released for a meal.

(2) Rest Period

(a) Save as provided in (b) of this subclause, a rest period of ten (10) minutes shall be allowed by an employer to all employees each day between the time of commencing work and the usual meal interval. A further rest period of ten (10) minutes shall be allowed between the usual meal interval and the usual time of ceasing work.

(b) In the case of casual workers and permanent part-time workers commencing work or ceasing work at other than the usual time of commencement of or cessation of work, the rest periods prescribed in (a) hereof shall not be taken within two hours of the usual meal interval as prescribed in (1) of this subclause.

11. - MEAL MONEY

(1) An employee required to work overtime for more than one hour after the usual ceasing time or beyond 6.30pm (whichever is the later) on any day, Monday to Friday inclusive, shall either be supplied with an adequate recognised evening meal by the employer from an established canteen on the premises or paid $5.45 in lieu thereof.

(2) If the notice is given and overtime is not worked, the meal money prescribed herein shall not be required to be paid.

(3) Any dispute under this clause as to the suitability of a canteen meal supplied may be resolved through the Dispute Resolution Procedure.

12. - OVERTIME

(1) All time worked by a weekly worker in excess of 38 hours in a week or in excess of his or her normal number of daily hours or outside the daily limits prescribed in Clause 9. - Hours of Work of this Award shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter. Each day shall stand alone for the purpose of calculating overtime and any overtime worked on any day of the week shall be paid for on a daily basis.

(2) (a) An employer may require any employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates.

(b) The organization party to this Award shall not in any way whether directly or indirectly be a party to or concerned in any ban, limitation or restriction upon the working of overtime in accordance with the requirements of this subclause.

(c) An employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the employee working hours which are unreasonable having regard to:

(i) any risk to employee health and safety;

(ii) the employee's personal circumstances including any family responsibilities;

(iii) the needs of the workplace or enterprise;

(iv) the notice (if any) given by the employer of the overtime and by the employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and

(vii) any other relevant matter.

(3) Notwithstanding subclause (2) of this Clause, workers required to work for longer than one and a half hours after the usual ceasing time shall be allowed not less than 30 minutes meal break provided that this provision shall not apply to workers on any day where there is an early ceasing time, unless a total of five and a half hours or more inclusive of overtime is to be worked following the midday meal break.

(4) A worker other than a worker subject to subclause (4) of this Clause who is required to work overtime for more than one hour beyond the ordinary ceasing time on any day, other than on a working day of less than eight hours, shall be entitled to a rest period of ten minutes paid for at the appropriate rate.

(5) (a) Where an employer and employee so agree, time off in lieu of payment for any or all overtime worked may be granted proportionate to the payment to which the employee is entitled in accordance with subclause (1) of this clause.

(b) Time off in lieu of payment for overtime shall be taken within a period of 2 months of the date on which the overtime is worked.

13. – PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

(1) (a) The following days or the days observed in lieu shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be allowed as holidays without deduction of pay, namely, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, Foundation Day, Sovereign's Birthday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day. Provided that another day may be taken as a holiday by arrangement between the parties in lieu of any of the days named in this subclause.

(b) When any of the days mentioned in paragraph (a) hereof falls on a Saturday or a Sunday the holiday shall be observed on the next succeeding Monday and when Boxing Day falls on a Sunday or a Monday the holiday shall be observed on the next succeeding Tuesday. In each case the substituted day shall be a holiday without deduction of pay and the day for which it is substituted shall not be a holiday.

(2) On any public holiday not prescribed as a holiday under this award the employer's establishment or place of business may be closed, in which case a worker need not present himself for duty and payment may be deducted, but if work is done ordinary rates of pay shall apply.

(3) Work done on any day prescribed as a holiday in subclause (1) of this clause shall be paid for at the rate of double time and one half.

(4) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual workers.

14. – ANNUAL LEAVE

(1) Annual Leave

(a) An employee is entitled to a period of four (4) consecutive weeks' annual leave with payment at the employee's ordinary rate of wage for each twelve (12) months continuous service with the employer. Entitlements to annual leave accrue pro rata on a weekly basis.

(b) Before going on leave the employee shall be paid the ordinary wages as prescribed by Clause 30 - Wages of this award they would have received in respect of the ordinary time they would have worked had they not been on leave during the relevant period.

(2) (a) During a period of annual leave an employee shall receive in addition to their payment for annual leave a loading of 17.5% calculated on the employee's ordinary wage as prescribed in Clause 30 – Wages for that period of leave.

(b) Provided that where the employee would have received any additional rates for the work performed in ordinary hours as prescribed by this award, had they not been on leave during the relevant period and such additional rates would have entitled him them to a greater amount than the loading of 17.5 percent, then such additional rates shall be added to his ordinary rate of wage in lieu of the 17.5 percent loading.

Provided further, that if the additional rates would have entitled him to a lesser amount than the loading of 17.5 percent, then such loading of 17.5 percent shall be added to their ordinary rate of wage in lieu of the additional rates.

(c) The loading prescribed by this clause shall not apply to proportionate leave on termination.

(3) If any award holiday falls within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that employee would have been an ordinary working day, that day shall be added to the employees annual leave entitlement.

(4) (a) An employee whose employment lawfully terminates and who has not taken the leave prescribed under this clause to which they have become entitled shall be given payment in lieu of that leave at the rate of one thirteenth of a week's pay (2.923 hours pay for each completed week of service) at their ordinary rate of wage for each completed week of service.

(b) Annual leave loading shall be payable in addition to any payment to which the employee may be entitled to under paragraph (a) hereof.

(c) An employee whose employment terminates before the employee has completed a twelve month qualifying period and has not been allowed leave prescribed under this Award in respect of that qualifying period shall be given payment in lieu of that leave. Or, in a case where the employee has taken part of the leave in lieu of so much of that leave as has not been taken) unless-

(i) the employee has been justifiably dismissed for misconduct; and

(ii) the misconduct for which the employee has been dismissed occurred prior to the completion of that qualifying period.

(5) Employees continue to accrue annual leave while on paid leave including:

(a) annual leave

(b) long service leave

(c) observing a public holiday prescribed by this award

(d) sick leave

(e) bereavement leave

(6) Annual leave may be taken in more than one period of leave, by mutual agreement between the employer and employee.

Provided further that the maximum number of single day absences allowable during any twelve-month accrual period shall be five.

No employee shall be required to take annual leave unless two weeks' prior notice is given.

(7) Where an employer and employee have not agreed when the employee is to take their annual leave, the employer is not to refuse the employee taking, at any time suitable to the employee, any period of annual leave which accrued more than 12 months before that time; provided the employee provides at least two weeks notice.

(8) (a) Notwithstanding anything else herein contained, an employer who observes a Christmas close-down for the purpose of granting annual leave may require an employee to take their annual leave accrued in the 12 month period up to their anniversary.

(b) An employer who requires employees to take their annual leave over a Christmas close-down must provide at least 14 days notice to the employees required to take such leave.

(c) In the event of an employee being employed by an employer for a portion only of a year they shall only be entitled subject to subclause (5) of this clause, to such leave on full pay as is proportionate to their length of service during that period with such employer. If such leave is not equal to the leave given to the other employees, the employee shall not be entitled to work or pay whilst the other employees are on leave on full pay.

(9) (a) At the request of an employee, and with the consent of the employer, annual leave prescribed by this clause may be given and taken in advance of being accrued by the employee in accordance with subclause (1).

(b) If the service of an employee terminates and the employee has taken a period of leave in accordance with this subclause and if the period of leave so taken exceeds that which would become due pursuant to subclause (4) of this clause, the employee shall be liable to pay the amount representing the difference between the amount received by him for the period of leave taken in accordance with this subclause and the amount which would have accrued in accordance with subclause (4) of this clause. The employer may deduct this amount from monies due to the employee by reason of the other provisions of this Award at the time of termination.

(c) The annual leave loading provided by subclause (2)(a) of this clause, shall not be payable when annual leave is taken in advance pursuant to the provisions of this subclause. The loading not paid, for the period of leave taken in advance, shall be payable to the employee at the end of the first pay period following the employee accruing the leave taken in advance.

(10) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to casual employees.

15. – SICK LEAVE

(1) (a) A worker who is unable to attend or remain at his place of employment during the ordinary hours of work by reason of personal ill health or injury shall be entitled to payment during such absence in accordance with the following provisions.

(b) Entitlement to payment shall accrue at the rate of one twenty sixth of a week for each completed week of service with the employer.

(c) If in the first or successive years of service with the employer a worker is absent on the ground of personal ill health or injury for a period longer than his entitlement to paid sick leave, payment may be adjusted at the end of that year of service, or at the time the worker's services terminate, if before the end of that year of service, to the extent that the worker has become entitled to further paid sick leave during that year of service.

(2) The unused portions of the entitlement to paid sick leave in any one year shall accumulate from year to year and subject to this clause may be claimed by the worker if the absence by reason of personal ill health or injury exceeds the period for which entitlement has accrued during the year at the time of the absence. Provided that a worker shall not be entitled to claim payment for any period exceeding ten weeks in any one year of service.

(3) To be entitled to payment in accordance with this clause the worker shall as soon as is reasonably practicable advise the employer of her inability to attend for work, the nature of her illness or injury and the estimated duration of the absence. Provided that such advice, other than in extraordinary circumstances shall be given to the employer within 24 hours of the commencement of the absence, and where possible, in the case of shift workers, prior to the usual commencing time on the first day of such absence through illness.

(4) (a) The employee shall as soon as reasonably practicable advise the employer of his or her inability to attend for work, the nature of the illness or injury and the estimated duration of absence, Provided that such advice, other than in extraordinary circumstances shall be given to the employer within 24 hours of the commencement of the absence.

(b) An employee claiming entitlement under this clause is to provide the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the entitlement.

(5) (a) Subject to the provisions of this subclause, the provisions of this clause apply to an employee who suffers personal ill health or injury during the time when they are absent on annual leave and an employee may apply for and the employer shall grant paid sick leave in place of paid annual leave.

(b) Application for replacement shall be made within seven days of resuming work and then only if the employee was confined to their place of residence or a hospital as a result of their personal ill health or injury for a period of seven consecutive days or more and produces a certificate from a registered medical practitioner that they were so confined. Provided that the provisions of this paragraph do not relieve the employee of the obligation to advise the employer in accordance with subclause (3) of this clause if they are unable to attend for work on the working day next following their annual leave.

(c) Replacement of paid annual leave by paid sick leave shall not exceed the period of paid sick leave to which the employee was entitled at the time they proceeded on annual leave and shall not be made with respect to fractions of a day.

(d) Where paid sick leave has been granted by the employer in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subclause, that portion of the annual leave equivalent to the paid sick leave is hereby replaced by the paid sick leave and the replaced annual leave may be taken at another time mutually agreed to by the employer and the employee or, failing agreement, shall be added to the employee's next period of annual leave or, if termination occurs before then, be paid for in accordance with the provisions of Clause 14 - Annual Leave.

31. - PAYMENT OF WAGES

Each worker shall be paid all wages due during the worker's ordinary working hours and not later than two working days following the termination of the usual working week. Provided, however, that where at least 50 per cent of the employees in a factory, workshop or section thereof agree and with the consent in writing of the Secretary of the Union, payment of all wages due may be made in the form a cash transfer to the employee's nominated account. Such transfer shall occur not later than during the forenoon of the second working day following the termination of the working week.

32. – PARENTAL LEAVE

(1) Subject to the terms of this clause employees are entitled to parental leave.

(2) For the purposes of this clause “continuous service” is work for an employer on a regular and systematic basis (including any period of authorised leave or absence).

(3) Definitions:

In this clause -

"adoption", in relation to a child, is a reference to a child who -

(i) is not the child or the step-child of the employee or the employee's partner;

(ii) is less than 5 years of age; and

(iii) has not lived continuously with the employee for 6 months or longer;

"continuous service" means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes -

(i) any period of parental leave; and

(ii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer;

"expected date of birth" means the day certified by a medical practitioner to be the day on which the medical practitioner expects the employee or the employee's partner, as the case may be, to give birth to a child;

"parental leave" means leave provided for by subclause (6)(a);

"partner" means a spouse or de facto partner.

(4) Entitlement to Parental Leave

(a) Subject to subclauses (6), (7)(a) and (8)(a), an employee, other than a casual employee, is entitled to take up to 52 consecutive weeks of unpaid leave in respect of -

(i) the birth of a child to the employee or the employee's partner; or

(ii) the placement of a child with the employee with a view to the adoption of the child by the employee.

(b) An employee is not entitled to take parental leave unless the employee -

(i) has, before the expected date of birth or placement, completed at least 12 months' continuous service with the employer; and

(ii) has given the employer at least 10 weeks written notice of the employee's intention to take the leave.

(c) An employee is not entitled to take parental leave at the same time as the employee's partner but this paragraph does not apply to one week's parental leave -

(i) taken by the employee and the employee's partner immediately after the birth of the child; or

(ii) taken by the employee and the employee's partner immediately after a child has been placed with them with a view to their adoption of the child.

(d) The entitlement to parental leave is reduced by any period of parental leave taken by the employee's partner in relation to the same child, except the period of one week's leave referred to in paragraph (c).

(5) Maternity leave to start 6 weeks before birth

A female employee who is pregnant and who has given notice of her intention to take parental leave is to start the leave 6 weeks before the expected date of birth, unless in respect of any period closer to the expected date of birth a medical practitioner has certified that the employee is fit to work.

(6) Medical certificate

An employee who has given notice of the employee's intention to take parental leave, other than for adoption, is to provide to the employer a certificate from a medical practitioner stating that the employee or the employee's partner, as the case may be, is pregnant and the expected date of birth.

(7) Notice of partner's parental leave

(a) An employee who has given notice of the employee's intention to take parental leave or who is actually taking parental leave is to notify the employer of particulars of any period of parental leave taken or to be taken by the employee's partner in relation to the same child.

(b) Any notice given under paragraph (a) is to be supported by a statutory declaration by the employee as to the truth of the particulars notified.

(8) Notice of parental leave details

(a) An employee who has given notice of the employee's intention to take parental leave is to notify the employer of the dates on which the employee wishes to start and finish the leave no less than four weeks before the proposed commencement date.

(b) An employee who is taking parental leave is to notify the employer of any change to the date on which the employee wishes to finish the leave.

(c) The starting and finishing dates of a period of parental leave are to be agreed between the employee and employer.

(9) Return to work after parental leave

(a) An employee shall confirm the employee's intention of returning to work by notice in writing to the employer given not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of the period of parental leave.

(b) On finishing parental leave, an employee is entitled to the position the employee held immediately before starting parental leave or, in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (12), to the position the employee held immediately before such transfer.

(c) If the position referred to in paragraph (a) is not available, the employee is entitled to an available position –

(i) for which the employee is qualified; and

(ii) that the employee is capable of performing, most comparable in status and pay to that of the employee's former position.

(d) Where, immediately before starting parental leave, an employee was acting in, or performing on a temporary basis the duties of the position referred to in paragraph (b), that paragraph applies only in respect of the position held by the employee immediately before taking the acting or temporary position.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) and (c) of this clause, an employer and an employee may agree to an alternative return to work such as part-time employment, having regard to

(i) applicable discrimination legislation,

(ii) the requirements of the employee,

(iii) the operational needs of the employer, and

(iv) any other relevant matter.

(10) Effect of parental leave on employment

Absence on parental leave -

(a) does not break the continuity of service of an employee; and

(b) is not to be taken into account when calculating the period of service for the purpose of this Award.

(11) Sick Leave

Where an employee not then on maternity leave suffers an illness related to her pregnancy, she may take such paid sick leave as to which she is then entitled and such further unpaid leave (to be known as special maternity leave) as a duly qualified medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work, provided that the aggregate of paid sick leave, special maternity leave and maternity leave shall not exceed 52 weeks.

(12) Transfer to a Safe-Job

Where in the opinion of a duly qualified medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee shall, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of parental leave.

If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may, or the employer may require the employee to take leave for such period as is certified necessary by a duly qualified medical practitioner. Such leave shall be treated as maternity leave for the purposes of this clause.

(13) Variation of Period of Parental Leave

(a) Provided the addition does not extend the parental leave beyond 52 weeks, the period may be lengthened once only, save with the agreement of the employer, by the employee giving not less than 14 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be lengthened.

(b) The period of leave may, with the consent of the employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be shortened.

(14) Cancellation of Parental Leave

(a) Parental leave, applied for but not commenced, shall be cancelled when the pregnancy of an employee or the employee's partner, as the case may be, terminates other than by the birth of a living child.

(b) Where the pregnancy of an employee or an employee's partner, as the case may be, then on parental leave terminates other than by the birth of a living child, it shall be the right of the employee to resume work at a time nominated by the employer which shall not exceed four weeks from the date of notice in writing by the employee to the employer that the employee desires to resume work.

(15) Special Maternity Leave

(a) Where the pregnancy of a female employee not then on parental leave terminates after 28 weeks other than by the birth of a living child then:

(i) she shall be entitled to such period of unpaid leave (to be known as special maternity leave) as a duly qualified medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work; or

(ii) for illness other than the normal consequences of confinement she shall be entitled, either in lieu of or in addition to special maternity leave, to such paid sick leave as to which she is then entitled and which a duly qualified medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work.

(b) For the purposes of subclauses (10), (16) and (17) hereof, maternity leave shall include special maternity leave.

(c) An employee returning to work after the completion of a period of leave taken pursuant to this subclause shall be entitled to the position which she held immediately before proceeding on such leave or, in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (12), to the position the employee held immediately before such transfer.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available, for which the employee is qualified and the duties of which the employee is capable of performing, the employee shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and salary or wage to that of the employee's former position.

(16) Parental Leave and Other Leave Entitlements

Provided the aggregate of leave including leave taken pursuant to subclauses (12) and (15) hereof does not exceed 52 weeks:

(a) An employee may, in lieu of or in conjunction with maternity leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which the employee is then entitled.

(b) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave), shall not be available to an employee during absence on parental leave.

(17) Termination of Employment

(a) An employee on parental leave may terminate their employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.

(b) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of the employee's absence on maternity leave or, in the case of a female employee, her pregnancy, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(18) Replacement Employees

(a) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave.

(b) Before an employer engages a replacement employee under this subclause, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

(c) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an employee exercising rights under this clause, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

(d) Provided that nothing in this subclause shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

(e) A replacement employee shall not be entitled to any of the rights conferred by this clause except where the employee's employment continues beyond the 12 months qualifying period.

33. - SHIFT WORK

(1) Shifts may be worked by adult workers at such hours as may be agreed upon by the employer and the employees and assented to by the Union in writing.

(2) A worker employed on shift work other than day shift shall be paid 15 per cent more than the prescribed rate of pay for the classification.

34. – SUPERANNUATION

(1) Superannuation Legislation

(a) The Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992, the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993 legislation as varied from time to time governs the superannuation rights and obligations of the parties.

(b) Notwithstanding (1)(a) above the following provisions apply.

(2) (a) Contributions

The employer shall contribute a minimum of 9% of ordinary time earnings per employee in accordance with subclause 3 of this clause.

(b) Employees' Additional Voluntary Contributions:

Where the rules of the fund allow an employee to make additional contributions to the fund the employer shall, where an election is made, upon the direction of the employee deduct contributions for the employee's wages and pay them to the fund in accordance with the direction of the employee and the rules of the fund.

(3) Compliance, Nomination and Transition

(a) For the purposes of this clause -

(i) the fund or scheme is a complying fund or scheme within the meaning of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth; and

(ii) under the governing rules of the fund or scheme, contributions may be made by or in respect of the employee permitted to nominate a fund or scheme;

(b) The employee shall be entitled to nominate the complying superannuation fund or scheme to which contributions are to be made. If the employee does not nominate a fund or scheme, or until such time as an employee nominates a fund or scheme, superannuation contribution shall be paid into the default fund.;

(c) The default fund shall be Westscheme Super Fund.

(d) The employer shall notify the employee of the entitlement to nominate a complying superannuation fund or scheme within fourteen (14) days;

(e) Each employee shall be eligible to receive contributions from the date of eligibility, notwithstanding the date the membership application was forwarded to the Fund.

(f) A nomination or notification of the type referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subclause (3) shall, subject to the requirements of regulations made pursuant to the Industrial Relations Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 1995, be given in writing to the employer or the employee to whom such is directed;

(g) The employee and employer shall be bound by the nomination of the employee unless the employee and employer agree to change the complying superannuation fund or scheme to which contributions are to be made;

(h) The employer shall not unreasonably refuse to agree to a change of complying superannuation fund or scheme requested by an employee;

(i) In the event that an employee has not, after 28 days of commencing employment, nominated a complying fund into which contributions may be made, the employer will forward contributions and employee details to the default scheme, Westscheme Super Fund.

(j) Except where the Trust Deed provides otherwise employer contributions shall be paid on a monthly basis for each week of service that the eligible employee completes with the employer.

(k) All contributions into the nominated Fund or scheme shall be paid on a quarterly basis and within thirty (30) days of the end of each month.

(l) For the purpose of this clause the employee's ordinary time earnings are as defined in the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992) shall include base classification rate, shift penalties together with any other all purpose allowance or penalty payment for work in ordinary time and shall include in respect of casual employee's the casual loading prescribed by this Award, but shall exclude any payment for overtime worked, vehicle allowances, fares or travelling time allowances (excluding travelling related to distant work) commission or bonus as well as –

(i) periods of unpaid leave or unauthorized absences; or

(ii) annual leave or any other payments paid out on termination.

(m) The employer shall continue to contribute to the nominated fund or scheme on behalf of an employee in receipt of payments under the Workers' Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981 for not more than 52 weeks.

35. - SUPPORTED WAGE SYSTEM FOR EMPLOYEES WITH DISABILITIES

(1) Employees eligible for a supported wage

This clause defines the conditions which will apply to employees who because of the effects of a disability are eligible for a supported wage under the terms of this Award. In the context of this clause, the following definitions will apply:

(a) Supported wage system means the Commonwealth Government system to promote employment for people who cannot work at full Award wages because of a disability, as documented in Supported Wage System: Guidelines and Assessment Process.

(b) Accredited assessor means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the Supported Wage System to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the Supported Wage System.

(c) Disability support pension means the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.

(d) Assessment instrument means the form provided for under the Supported Wage System that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the Supported Wage System.

(2) Eligibility criteria

(a) Employees covered by this clause will be those who are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level required within the class of work for which the employee is engaged under this Award, because of the effects of a disability on their productive capacity and who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a Disability Support Pension.

(b) The clause does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provisions of workers' compensation legislation or any provision of this Award relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their current employment.

(c) The Award does not apply to employers in respect of their facility, programme, undertaking service or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a disability support pension, except with respect to an organisation which has received recognition under s.10 or s.12A of the Disability Services Act 1986, or if a part only has received recognition, that part.

(3) Supported wage rates

(a) Employees to whom this clause applies shall be paid the applicable percentage of the minimum rate of pay prescribed by this Award for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following schedule:

Assessed capacity	% of prescribed award rate
10%	10%
20%	20%
30%	30%
40%	40%
50%	50%
60%	60%
70%	70%
80%	80%
90%	90%

(b) Provided that the minimum amount payable shall be not less than as provided by the National Supported Wage System.

(c) Where a person's assessed capacity is 10 per cent, they shall receive a high degree of assistance and support.

(4) Assessment of capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the Award rate to be paid to an employee under this Award, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument by either:

(a) the employer and a union party to the Award, in consultation with the employee or, if desired by any of these;

(b) the employer and an Accredited Assessor from a panel agreed by the parties to the Award and the employee.

(5) Lodgement of assessment instrument

(a) All assessment instruments under the conditions of this clause, including the appropriate percentage of the Award wage to be paid to the employee, shall be lodged by the employer with the Registrar of the Industrial Relations Commission.

(b) All assessment instruments shall be agreed and signed by the parties to the assessment, provided that where a union which is party to the Award, is not a party to the assessment, it shall be referred by the Registrar to the union by certified mail and shall take effect unless an objection is notified to the Registrar within 10 working days.

(6) Review of assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage should be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review shall be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

(7) Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage shall apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the provisions of the clause will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other employees covered by this Award paid on a pro rata basis.

(8) Workplace adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this clause shall take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other employees in the areas.

(9) Trial period

(a) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an employer may employ a person under the provisions of this clause for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding four weeks) may be needed.

(b) During that trial period the assessment of capacity shall be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship shall be determined.

(c) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period shall be no less than as provided by the National Supported Wage System.

(d) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialled.

(e) Where the employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment shall be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under subclause (4) of this clause.

36. - RELATIONSHIP TO THE NATIONAL TRAINING WAGE AWARD 2000

A party to this award shall comply with the terms of the National Training Wage Award 2000 [AW790899 - PR904174 (No. 277)] and as varied from time to time as though it was a party bound by Clause 3. – Parties Bound of that award.

APPENDIX - S.49B - INSPECTION OF RECORDS REQUIREMENTS

(1) Where this award, order or industrial agreement empowers a representative of an organisation of employees party to this award, order or industrial agreement to inspect the time and wages records of an employee or former employee, that power shall be exercised subject to the Industrial Relations (General) Regulations 1997 (as may be amended from time to time) and the following:

(a) The employer may refuse the representative access to the records if: -

(i) the employer is of the opinion that access to the records by the representative of the organisation would infringe the privacy of persons who are not members of the organisation; and

(ii) the employer undertakes to produce the records to an Industrial Inspector within 48 hours of being notified of the requirement to inspect by the representative.

(b) The power of inspection may only be exercised by a representative of an organisation of employees authorised for the purpose in accordance with the rules of the organisation.

(c) Before exercising a power of inspection, the representative shall give reasonable notice of not less than 24 hours to an employer.

DATED at Perth this 24th day of July, 1979.
