(15) At any time prior to the expiry of the probationary period (including any extended period) the employer or the employee may terminate the employment by giving not less than 1 day’s notice or by the payment or forfeiture (as the case requires) of 1 day’s pay in lieu of such notice.

(2) During a period of annual leave a worker shall receive a loading of 17 ½% calculated on his ordinary rate of wage. Provided that where the worker would have received any additional rates for work performed in ordinary hours, as prescribed by this award, had he not been on leave during the relevant period and such additional rates would have entitled him to a greater amount than the loading of 17 ½%, then such additional rates shall be added to his ordinary rate of wage in lieu of the 17 ½% loading. Provided further, that if the additional rates would have entitled him to a lesser amount than the loading of 17 ½%, then such loading of 17 ½% shall be added to his ordinary rate of wage in lieu of the additional rates. The loading prescribed by this subclause shall not apply to proportionate leave on termination.

(3) If any prescribed holiday falls within a worker's period of annual leave, there shall be added to that period one day being an ordinary working day for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(4) Any time in respect of which a worker is absent from work, shall not count for the purpose of determining his right to annual leave, unless it is an absence during which he is entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays, annual leave and long service leave as prescribed by this award, or it is an absence approved by the employer.

(b) Any absence from work by reason of any cause not being a cause specified in paragraph (a) hereof shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service for the purposes of this clause unless the employer during the absence or within 14 days of the termination of the absence notifies the worker in writing that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service.

Such notice maybe given to a worker by delivering it to him personally or by posting it to his last known address in which case it shall be deemed to have reached the worker in due course of post or, where a number of workers are absent from work, by posting up of a notification the employer's establishment.

(7) With the consent of the employer and the worker, annual leave may be taken in more than one period provided that one of these periods shall not be less than two weeks.

(8) By arrangement between the employer and the worker annual leave may be allowed to accumulate from year to year but where the leave to which a worker is entitled or any portion thereof is allowed to accumulate to meet the convenience of the worker the ordinary wage for that leave shall be the ordinary wage applicable to the worker at the date at which he became entitled to the leave unless the employer agrees in writing that the wage be that applicable at the date the leave commences.

(9) (a) At the request of an employee, and with the consent of employer, annual leave prescribed by this clause may be given and taken before the completion of 12 months' continuous service as prescribed by subclause (1) of this clause.

(b) If the service of an employee terminates and the employee has taken a period of leave in accordance with this subclause and if the period of leave so taken exceeds that which would become due pursuant to subclause (6) of this clause the employee shall be liable to pay the amount representing the difference between the amount received by him/her for the period of leave taken in accordance with this subclause and the amount would have accrued in accordance with subclause (6) of this clause. The employer may deduct this amount from monies due to the employee by reason of the other provisions of this award at the time of termination.

(c) The annual leave loading provided by subclause (2) of this clause, shall not be payable when annual leave is taken in advance pursuant to the provisions of this subclause. (4) A copy of the agreement shall be made available in writing to all employees at the enterprise or workplace and to the union party to this award.

(5) The union shall not unreasonably oppose the application to vary the award to give effect to the terms of the agreement.

(ii) any other law of the Commonwealth or State that the Commission thinks relevant; and

(b) in the context of their terms and conditions of employment considered as a whole, the Commission considers that the reduction is contrary to the public interest.

(9) Nothing in this clause shall be taken as limiting the right of any party to apply to give effect to an enterprise agreement under any other provisions of the Industrial Relations Act, 1979.

46. – CHANGES WITH SIGNIFICANT EFFECT AND REDUNDANCY

(1) In this clause –

"employee" does not include a casual employee or an apprentice or industrial trainee within the meaning of the Industrial Training Act 1975 (WA);

"redundant" means being no longer required by an employer to continue doing a job because, for a reason that is not a usual reason for change in the employer's work-force, the employer has decided that the job will not be done by any person.

(2) For the purposes of this clause, an action of an employer has a significant effect on an employee if –

(a) there is to be a major change in the –

(i) composition, operation or size of; or

(ii) skills required in,

the employer's work-force that will affect the employee;

(b) there is to be elimination or reduction of –

(4) The matters to be discussed are –

(a) the likely effects of the action or the redundancy in respect of the employee; and

(b) measures that may be taken by the employee or the employer to avoid or minimize a significant effect, as the case requires.

(5) Nothing in this clause requires an employer, when providing information or holding a discussion under this clause to disclose information that may seriously harm –

(a) the employer's business undertaking; or

(b) the employer's interest in the carrying on, or disposition, of the business undertaking.

(6) (a) An employee who has been informed that he or she has been, or will be, made redundant is entitled to paid leave of up to 8 hours for the purpose of being interviewed for further employment.

(b) The 8 hours need not be consecutive.

(c) An employee who claims to be entitled to paid leave under paragraph (a) is to provide to the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the entitlement.

(d) Payment for leave under paragraph (a) is to be made at the rate the employee would have been paid if the leave was not taken.

47. – RIGHT OF ENTRY

An authorised representative of an organisation has right of entry in accordance with Division 2G of the Industrial Relations Act, 1979.

48. – REDUNDANCY

(1) Definition

Redundancy occurs when an employer decides that the employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

(2) Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated and the employer may at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary rate of pay and the new ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

(3) Severance pay

In addition to the period of notice prescribed for ordinary termination in clause 7 – Contract of Service an employee whose employment is terminated by reason of redundancy must be paid, subject to further order of the Commission, the following amount of severance pay in respect of a continuous period of service:

Period of continuous service	Severance pay
1 year or less	nil
1 year and up to the completion of 2 years	4 weeks' pay
2 years and up to the completion of 3 years	6 weeks' pay
3 years and up to the completion of 4 years	7 weeks' pay
4 years and over	8 weeks' pay

(4) Week's pay means the ordinary time rate of pay for the employees concerned.

Provided that the severance payments shall not exceed the amount which the employee would have earned if employment with the employer had proceeded to the employee's normal retirement date.

(5) Employee leaving during notice period

An employee whose employment is terminated by reason of redundancy may terminate his/her employment during the period of notice and, if so, will be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had they remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice. However, in this circumstance the employee will not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

(6) Alternative employment

An employer, in a particular redundancy case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.

(7) Time off during notice period

(a) During the period of notice of termination given by the employer an employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

(b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or he or she shall not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

(8) Superannuation benefits

(a) Subject to further order of the Commission where an employee who is terminated receives a benefit from a superannuation scheme, he or she shall only receive under sub-clause (3) (above) hereof the difference between the severance pay specified in that clause and the amount of the superannuation benefit he or she receives which is attributable to employer contributions only.

(b) If this superannuation benefit is greater than the amount due under sub-clause (3) hereof then he or she shall receive no payment under that clause.

(9) Employees exempted

(a) This clause shall not apply where employment is terminated as a consequence of conduct that justifies instant dismissal including inefficiency within the first fourteen days, neglect of duty or misconduct, and in the case of casual employees, apprentices or employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specific task or tasks.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions trainees who are engaged for a specific period of time shall, once the traineeship is completed and provided that the trainee services are retained, have all service including the training period counted in determining entitlements. In the event that a trainee is terminated at the end of his or her traineeship and is re-engaged by the same employer within six months of such termination the period of traineeship shall be counted as service in determining any future redundancy entitlements.

(10) Employers exempted

Subject to an order of the Commission, in a particular redundancy case, this clause shall not apply to employers who employ less than fifteen employees.

(11) Incapacity to pay

An employer, in a particular redundancy case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied on the basis of the employer's incapacity to pay.

49. - ANTI-DISCRIMINATION

(1) It is the intention of the respondents to this award to respect and value the diversity of the work force by helping to prevent and eliminate discrimination on the basis of race, colour, sex, sexual preference, age, physical or mental disability, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, religion, political opinion, natural extraction or social origin.

(2) Accordingly, in fulfilling their obligations under the dispute avoidance and settling clause, the respondents must make every endeavour to ensure that neither the award provisions nor their operation are directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects.

(3) Nothing in this clause is taken to affect:

(a) any different treatment (or treatment having different effects) which is specifically exempted under the State or Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation;

(b) junior rates of pay;

(e) a reason for terminating a person's employment as a member of the staff of an institution that is conducted in accordance with the doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teachings of a particular religion or creed, if the employer terminates the employment in good faith to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of that religion or creed.

51. - FURTHER CLAIMS

(1) The consent variations made to the award in applications 379 of 1995 and 580 of 1994 do not prejudice either party in respect of any further claim made after 1 July 2003 in relation to the following matters or matters that reasonably relate to those matters –

penalty rates for ordinary hours for casuals on week-ends or public holidays; and

'additional rates' for ordinary hours for casuals.

(2) The parties will not seek to rely on the consent variations as a basis for any future claims of the above matters and any such claim must be established on its merits.

(3) Further, the parties agree that in any future arbitration of the above matters the onus lies with the party then seeking the variation.

52. - UNION DELEGATES AND MEETINGS

(1) In an establishment a Union Delegate may be elected by the employees. Such Delegate shall be recognised by the employer, and shall be allowed all necessary time during working hours to submit to the employer industrial matters affecting the employees whom he represents and further shall be allowed reasonable time during working hours to attend to any industrial dispute or industrial matter that may arise affecting the employees in that establishment.

(2) The Union and an employer may agree to further delegates having regard for the size of the establishment and the shift arrangements for the work performed.

(3) Prior to the intended dismissal of a Union Delegate, the employer shall notify the union accordingly of the reasons for such dismissal.

(4) (a) At each employer's establishment the union shall be allowed to convene one "Union Meeting" each year, during ordinary working hours, in accordance with the following conditions:-

(i) such meeting shall be held on any day of the week other than a Thursday, Friday or Saturday, Sunday or public holiday;

(ii) the duration of such meeting shall not exceed three hours;

(iii) the time, date and venue of such meeting shall be agreed between the Union and the employer;

(iv) each employee attending the meeting during ordinary rostered working hours, shall be paid for such hours, provided that the employee produces satisfactory evidence of having been in attendance at the meeting to his or her employer.

(b) For the purposes of this sub-clause and by agreement between the Union and the employer, the term "Union Meeting", may mean several individual meetings held at different times, dates and venues to discuss the same subject matter provided that an employee shall only be entitled to attend or be paid for attending one (1) meeting each year.

(5) To avoid doubt, agreement in this clause may not be unreasonably withheld.
