(b) Subject to the requirements of this clause an employee who is the primary care giver, and who has completed 12 months’ continuous service in the WA Public Sector immediately preceding the parental leave, will be entitled to 14 weeks' paid parental leave in respect of the birth of a child to an employee or the employee's partner or the adoption of a child that will form part of the 52 week unpaid entitlement.

(c) The Commissioner may request evidence of primary care giver status.

(d) An employee seeking to adopt a child shall be entitled to two days' unpaid leave for the employee to attend interviews or examinations as required for the adoption procedure. Employees working or residing outside the Perth Metropolitan Area are entitled to one additional day's leave. The employee may take any paid leave entitlement in lieu of this leave.

(e) The period of paid parental leave can be extended by the employee taking double the leave on a half-pay basis and its effect is in accordance with subclause (11)(b).

(f) Paid parental leave for primary care purposes for any one birth or adoption shall not exceed the entitlement provided at subclause (2)(b) or its half pay equivalent.

(g) Where both partners are employed in the WA Public Sector, the leave shall not be taken concurrently except for special circumstances and with the approval of the Commissioner.

(h) The paid and unpaid parental leave entitlement up to a maximum of 52 weeks may be shared between partners, employed within the WA Public Sector, assuming the role of primary caregiver.

(i) An employee must take paid and unpaid parental leave in one continuous period.

(j) Where less than the 52 weeks' parental leave is taken paid or unpaid, the unused portion of the leave cannot be banked or preserved in any way.

(3) Notice Requirements

(a) An employee is entitled to parental leave only after he or she has given the Commissioner at least eight weeks' written notice of his or her intention to take the leave, the date the employee proposes to commence parental leave and the proposed period of leave to be taken.

(b) An employee who has given their Commissioner notice of their intention to take parental leave shall provide the Commissioner with a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner naming the employee, confirming the pregnancy and the estimated date of birth.

(c) An employee is not in breach of subclause (3)(a) by failing to give the required period of notice if such failure is due to the birth of the child taking place prior to the date the employee had intended to proceed on parental leave.

(d) An employee is not in breach of subclause (3)(a) by failing to give the required period of notice if such failure is due to the requirement of the adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, or other compelling circumstances.

(e) An employee proceeding on parental leave may elect to take a shorter period of parental leave and may at any time during that period of leave elect to reduce or extend the period stated in the original application provided four weeks' written notice is provided.

(4) Commencement of Parental Leave

(a) A pregnant employee can commence the period of continuous parental leave any time up to six weeks before the expected date of birth.

(b) An eligible employee identified as the primary care giver can commence the period of paid parental leave from the birth date or for the purposes of adoption from the day of placement of the child.

(c) The minimum period of absence on parental leave for a pregnant employee shall commence six weeks before the expected date of birth and end six weeks after the day on which the birth has taken place. However, an employee may apply to the Commissioner to vary this period provided her application is supported by a certificate from a registered medical practitioner indicating that the employee is fit to continue or resume duty within this minimum period.

(d) Where the pregnancy of an employee terminates other than by the birth of a living child, not earlier than 20 weeks before the expected date of the birth, the entitlement to paid parental leave remains intact and subject to the eligibility requirements of this clause. Such paid parental leave cannot be taken concurrently with any paid sick leave in accordance with Clause 27 (Entitlement to leave and allowances through illness or injury) of this award.

(e) The period of paid parental leave must be concluded within 12 months of the birth of the child.

(f) Where an application for parental leave has been granted for the adoption of a child, which does not eventuate, then the period of paid or unpaid parental leave is terminated. Employees may take any other paid leave entitlement in lieu of the terminated parental leave, or return to work.

(5) Payment for Paid Parental Leave

(a) Paid parental leave will be paid at ordinary rates and will not include the payment of any form of allowance or penalty payment.

(b) An employee may elect to receive pay in advance for the period of paid parental leave at the time the parental leave commences.

(c) An employee is entitled to remain on paid parental leave if the pregnancy results in other than a live child; or the employee is incapacitated following the birth of the child; or the child dies or is hospitalised such that the employee or the employee's partner is not providing principal care to the child.

(6) Unpaid Partner Leave

(a) An employee who is not taking parental leave is entitled to one week's unpaid partner leave in respect of the:

(i) birth of a child to the employee's partner; or

(ii) adoption of a child;

taken immediately following the birth or, in the case of adoption, the day of placement of the child.

(b) An employee entitled to unpaid partner leave provided in subclause (6)(a), may elect to substitute any part of that leave with annual leave, long service leave and/or paid time off in lieu of overtime.

(c) An employee is entitled to request an extension to the period of unpaid partner leave up to a maximum of eight weeks.

(d) The Commissioner is to agree to an employee's request to extend their unpaid partner leave made under subclause (c) of this clause unless:

(i) having considered the employee's circumstances, the Commissioner is not satisfied that the request is genuinely based on the employee's parental responsibilities; or

(ii) there are grounds to refuse the request relating to the adverse effect that agreeing to the request would have on the conduct of operations or business of the Commissioner and those grounds would satisfy a reasonable person. These grounds include, but are not limited to:

(aa) cost;

(bb) lack of adequate replacement staff;

(cc) loss of efficiency; and

(dd) impact on the production or delivery of products or services by the Commissioner.

(e) The Commissioner is to give the employee written notice of the Commissioner's decision on a request to extend their unpaid partner leave. If the employee's request is refused, the notice is to set out the reasons for the refusal.

(f) An employee who believes their request to extend unpaid partner leave has been unreasonably refused may seek to enforce it as a minimum condition of employment and the onus will be on the Commissioner to demonstrate that the refusal was justified in the circumstances.

(g) Where the Commissioner agrees to an employee's request to extend their period of unpaid partner leave under subclause (6)(c), the Commissioner must allow an employee to elect to substitute any part of that period of unpaid partner leave with accrued annual leave, long service leave and/or time off in lieu of overtime.

(h) An employee on unpaid partner leave is not entitled to any paid sick leave in accordance with Clause 27 (Entitlement to leave and allowances through illness or injury) of this award.

(i) The total period of unpaid partner leave provided by this clause shall not exceed eight weeks.

(7) Transfer to a Safe Job

(a) Where illness or risks arising out of pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue in her present duties, as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner, the duties shall be modified or the employee may be transferred to a safe position of the same classification until the commencement of parental leave.

(b) (i) A pregnant employee may work part time in one or more periods whilst she is pregnant where she provides her Commissioner with a medical certificate from a medical practitioner advising that part time employment is, because of her pregnancy, necessary or preferable.

(ii) The terms of part time employment undertaken in accordance with subclause (7)(b)(i) shall be in writing.

(c) In the absence of an alternative requirement, and unless otherwise agreed between the Commissioner and employee, an employee shall provide the Commissioner with four weeks written notice of an intention to:

(i) vary part time work arrangements made under subclause (7)(b); or

(ii) revert to full time employment during the employee's pregnancy.

(d) An employee reverting to full time employment in accordance with subclause (7)(c)(ii) will be entitled to the same position or a position equivalent in pay, conditions and status and commensurate with the employee's skill and abilities as the substantive position held immediately prior to undertaking part time employment.

(e) If the transfer to a safe position is not practicable, the employee is entitled to be absent from the workplace on full pay for the period during which she is unable to continue in her present position.

(f) An employee who is absent from work pursuant to subclause (7)(e) shall be paid the amount she would reasonably have expected to be paid if she had worked during that period.

(g) An entitlement to be absent from the workplace on full pay is in addition to any leave entitlement the employee has.

(h) An entitlement to be absent from the workplace on full pay ends at the earliest of whichever of the following times is applicable:

(i) the end of the period stated in the medical certificate;

(ii) if the employee's pregnancy results in the birth of a living child – the end of the day before the date of birth; or

(iii) if the employee's pregnancy ends otherwise than with the birth of a living child – the end of the day before the end of the pregnancy.

(8) Interaction with Other Leave Entitlements

(a) An employee proceeding on unpaid parental leave may elect to substitute any part of that leave with accrued annual leave or accrued long service leave for the whole or part of the period of parental leave.

(b) Where annual and/or long service leave is substituted that leave shall form part of the 52 weeks' parental leave entitlement.

(c) An employee on parental leave is not entitled to paid sick leave and other paid award absences.

(d) Where the pregnancy of an employee terminates other than by the birth of a living child then the employee shall be entitled to such period of paid sick leave or unpaid leave for a period certified as necessary by a registered medical practitioner. Such paid sick leave cannot be taken concurrently with a period of paid parental leave.

(e) Where a pregnant employee not on parental leave suffers illness related to the employee's pregnancy or is required to undergo a pregnancy related medical procedure the employee may take any paid sick leave to which the employee is entitled or such further unpaid leave for a period certified as necessary by a registered medical practitioner.

(f) Subject to all other leave entitlements being exhausted, an employee shall be entitled to apply for leave without pay following parental leave to extend their leave by up to two years. The Commissioner is to agree to a request for extended unpaid parental leave unless:

(i) the Commissioner is not satisfied that the request is genuinely based on the employee's parental responsibilities; or

(ii) agreeing to the request would have an adverse impact on the conduct of operations or business of the Commissioner and those grounds would satisfy a reasonable person.

(g) The Commissioner is to give the employee written notice of the Commissioner's decision on a request for extended unpaid parental leave under subclause (8)(f). If the request is refused, the notice is to set out the reasons for the refusal.

(h) An employee who believes their request for extended unpaid parental leave under subclause (8)(f) has been unreasonably refused may seek to enforce it as a minimum condition of employment and the onus will be on the Commissioner to demonstrate that the refusal was justified in the circumstances.

(i) Any period of leave without pay must be applied for and approved in advance and will be granted on a year by year basis. Where both partners work for the WA Public Sector the total combined period of leave without pay following parental leave will not exceed two years.

(9) Communication during Parental Leave

(a) If the Commissioner makes a decision that will have a significant effect on the status, responsibility level, pay or location of an employee's position whilst on parental leave, the Commissioner must take all reasonable steps to give the employee information about, and an opportunity to discuss, the effect of the decision on that position.

(b) An employee shall also notify the Commissioner of changes of address or other contact details that might affect the Commissioner's capacity to comply with subclause (9)(a).

(10) Return to Work

(a) An employee shall confirm the intention to return to work by notice in writing to the Commissioner not less than four weeks' prior to the expiration of the period of parental leave.

(b) An employee on return from parental leave shall be entitled to the same position, or a position equivalent in pay, conditions and status and commensurate with the employee's skill and abilities, as the substantive position held immediately prior to proceeding on Parental Leave. Where an employee was transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (7)(a) the employee is entitled to return to the position occupied immediately prior to the transfer.

(c) An employee may return, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, on a part-time basis to the same position occupied prior to the commencement of leave or to a different position at the same classification level on a part-time basis in accordance with the part-time provisions of this award, or on a modified basis that involves the employee working on different days or at different times, or both; or on fewer days or for fewer hours or both, than the employee worked immediately before starting parental leave.

(d) Subject to the Commissioner's approval an employee who has returned on a part time basis may revert to full time work at the same classification level.

(e) Where the position occupied by the employee no longer exists the employee shall be entitled to a position of the same classification level with duties similar to that of the abolished position.

(11) Effect of Leave on Employment Contract

(a) Paid parental leave will count as qualifying service for all purposes.

(b) Qualifying service for any purpose is to be calculated according to the number of weeks of paid parental leave that were taken at full pay or would have been had the employee not taken paid parental leave at half pay. Employees who take paid parental leave on half pay do not accrue entitlements beyond those that would have accrued had they taken the leave at full pay.

(c) Absence on unpaid parental leave or extended unpaid parental leave shall not break the continuity of service of employees.

(d) Where an employee takes a period of unpaid parental leave or extended unpaid parental leave exceeding 14 calendar days in one continuous period, the entire period of such leave shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose. Periods of unpaid leave of 14 days or less shall count as continuous service.

(e) An employee on parental leave may terminate employment at any time during the period of leave by providing the required written notice.

27. - ENTITLEMENT TO LEAVE AND ALLOWANCES THROUGH ILLNESS OR INJURY

(4) Subject to subclause (2) and to the compliance by the employee of subparagraphs (a) and (b) of subclause (3), the Commissioner may grant to an employee in respect of the employee's incapacity leave of absence with pay:

(a) for up to 168 days in a calendar year; and

(b) if so recommended by the Manager and subject to any terms or conditions recommended by the Manager, for a further period.

(5) Except where an employee is incapacitated through the employee's fault or misconduct, an employee is entitled to receive in respect of a period of leave of absence approved under subclause (4) and subject to any terms and conditions imposed under subparagraph (4)(b), any special allowances which the employee would have received under the award if the employee had not been incapacitated.

(7) In subclause (6) "family" means the partner and any children of the employee residing with the employee.

(8) (a) An employee who suffers illness or injury through the employee's fault or misconduct is not entitled to paid leave contained within the provisions of subclause (4) under subparagraphs (a) and (b) in respect of absence from duty resulting from that illness or injury.

(b) An employee who suffers illness or injury through the employee's fault or misconduct is not entitled in respect of that illness or injury to receive the benefits contained under Clause 30 (Medical and Pharmaceutical Expenses) of the award.

(c) Where the incapacity of an employee results from the carrying on by the employee of an occupation for which the employee received or expected to receive remuneration, outside of the employee's duties as an employee, the Commissioner may grant or refuse to grant paid leave to the employee in respect of the incapacity or may grant the employee leave at a reduced rate of pay.

(9) An incapacitated employee shall not during the employee's absence from duty engage for reward in any other occupation or activity.

(10) An employee who has been absent from duty because of incapacity for longer than four weeks shall, before returning to duty, submit to the Manager evidence of the employee’s medical fitness to return to duty.

(11) (a) The Commissioner may direct an employee to submit to examination, at the expense of the Commissioner, by one or more medical practitioners nominated in each instance by the Commissioner and the employee shall obey such a direction.

(b) Where an employee has been examined under subclause (11)(a) and the examining medical practitioner expresses the opinion in writing to the Commissioner that the employee is unfit for duty because of illness or injury, the Commissioner may direct the employee to apply for leave on that ground and the employee shall obey such a direction.

28. - CARER’S LEAVE

(1) Employees are entitled to access up to 40 hours carer’s leave per calendar year to provide care and support to a member of the employee’s family or household who requires care support because of:

(b) an unexpected emergency affecting the member.

(2) Where employees have exhausted the entitlements provided under subclause (1) of this clause they are able to access up to an additional 40 hours of their illness and injury leave entitlements as prescribed under clause 27 (Entitlement to Leave and Allowances Through Illness or Injury) of this award, per calendar year, to provide care and support to a member of the employee's family or household for the abovementioned reasons.

(5) Carer's leave is not cumulative from year to year.

PART 6 – MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL EXPENSES

29. - MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL EXPENSES THROUGH ILLNESS OR INJURY RESULTING FROM DUTIES.

(1) Subject to the provisions contained within subclause (8)(b) of Clause 27 (Entitlement to Leave and Allowances Through Illness or Injury) of this award, the Commissioner shall pay the reasonable medical and hospital expenses incurred by an employee as a result of illness or injury arising out of or in the course of the employee's duties or suffered by the employee in the course of travel to or from a place of duty.

EDIT NOTE

Consolidation award reflects Orders held on file by Commission. However, due to inaccuracies in some orders the true intention of the parties may not be reflected throughout the whole of the award. The errors encountered are as follows:

1. Clause 13 - Allowance for Use of Employee's Own Vehicle

Order 386/78 renamed this cl (previously Mileage Allowance) in the arrangements cl but not in the body of the award. Subsequent orders refer to new title.

2. Clause 21 - Fares While Travelling

Appears in the arrangement cl as "Fares While Travelling" but appears in body of award as "Fares Whilst Travelling".
(Ins by Original Order.)
