(7) Maternity Leave and Other Leave Entitlements

Provided the aggregate of leave including leave taken pursuant to subclauses (3) and (6) of this clause does not exceed 52 weeks.

(a) An Officer may, in lieu of or in conjunction with maternity leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which she is then entitled.

(b) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave), shall not be available to an Officer during her absence on maternity leave.

(8) Effect of Maternity Leave on Employment

Notwithstanding any award, or other provision to the contrary, absence on maternity leave shall not break the continuity of service of an Officer but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of the award.

(9) Termination of Employment

(a) An Officer on maternity leave may terminate her employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.

(b) The Authority shall not terminate the employment of an Officer on the ground of her pregnancy or of her absence on maternity leave, but otherwise the rights of the employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(10) Return to Work After Maternity Leave

(a) An Officer shall confirm her intention of returning to her work by notice in writing to the Authority given not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of her period of maternity leave.

(b) An Officer, upon the expiration of the notice required by paragraph (a) of this clause, shall be entitled to the position which she held immediately before proceeding on maternity leave or, in the case of an Officer who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (3) of this clause, to the position which she held immediately before such transfer. Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available for which the Officer is qualified and the duties of which she is capable of performing, she shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and salary or wage to that of her former position.

(11) Replacement Officers

(a) A replacement Officer is an Officer specifically engaged as a result of an Officer proceeding on maternity leave.

(b) Before the Authority engages a replacement Officer under this subclause, the Authority shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the Officer who is being replaced.

(c) Before the Authority engages a person to replace an Officer temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an Officer exercising her rights under this clause, the Authority shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the Officer who is being replaced.

(d) Provided that nothing in this subclause shall be construed as requiring the Authority to engage a replacement Officer.

(e) A replacement Officer shall not be entitled to any of the rights conferred by this clause except where the employment continues beyond the 12 months' qualifying period.

CLAUSE 23. - AVOIDANCE OF DISPUTES PROCEDURE

It is the intention of the parties to endeavour to provide a mechanism by which any or all grievances/disputes shall be promptly resolved by conciliation:

(1) Any grievance of a Port Control Officer shall be submitted to the Harbour Master through the Marine Supervisor as soon as practical.

(2) The Harbour Master and the Port Control Officer shall discuss the matter in full.

(3) In the event of there being no settlement of the grievance at this level, the matter shall be referred to the General Manager or their representative.

(4) If the matter remains unresolved, the Authority and a representative of The Australian Maritime Officers Union - Western Area Union of Employees shall confer in an endeavour to reach a satisfactory settlement.

(5) Once all the above procedures have been complied with and there is still no resolution, either party may refer the matter to the State Industrial Relations Commission.

(6) Without prejudice to either party, it is the intention of all parties that work shall continue, pending determination of any grievance or dispute, in accordance with the above procedures except where changed work practices, which are the subject of disputation, directly threaten the personal safety of employees.

(7) Provided that nothing contained above shall prevent either party referring the matter to the State Industrial Relations Commission at any time.

(8) In the event of a pending industrial dispute, the Harbour Master shall be provided with details of such industrial action by an official of the Australian Maritime Officers Union Western Area Union of Employees. All endeavours shall be made to resolve the dispute prior to the commencement of such industrial action.

(9) It is agreed that during periods of industrial disputation, exemptions shall include the following vessels:

(a) any vessel in an emergency circumstance;

(b) naval vessels.

23A. - CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE

(1) A consultative committee shall be formed composed of employer and employee representatives.

The committee shall seek, by this consultative process, to improve the efficiency and productivity of the Port Hedland Port Authority.

Accordingly it shall have power to review (but not be limited to):

(i) work practices of Port Control Officers

(ii) award variations

(iii) duties of Port Control Officers

(iv) industrial relations practices

(v) training requirements of Port Control Officers

(vi) on any other matter that in the opinion of the parties will improve efficiency and productivity at Port Hedland Port Authority.

(2) This consultative committee shall meet as and when agreed to by the parties.

24. - PERFORMANCE OF WORK

The employee will perform such work within the employee's skill, competence and training as the employer may from time to time require.

25. - ONGOING DISCUSSIONS

1. The employer and employees agree to regularly discuss and review the appropriateness of award provisions for efficient and productive work arrangement. It is acknowledged that this review may result in a need to vary the award in which case the variation sought must be ratified by the Western Australian Industrial Relations Commission.
2. The employer and employees may, if the majority of the employees and the employer agree, operate and apply conditions in the manner different from that provided in the award.
