(c) Pre-Primary – 320 minutes per week

(4) For multi age classes where there are differences in the DOTT allocation, the minimum DOTT allocation is calculated by proportioning the allocations according to the ratio of students across year levels, in accordance with the following formula:

$$a = \frac{\text{Number of primary students in class}}{\text{Total number of students in class}} \times \text{DOTT allocation}$$

a + b = Total weekly DOTT entitlement

(5) An example of how to calculate the minimum DOTT allocation for 2020 is provided below:

A teacher with a class of 23 students in 2020, where there are 10 pre-primary students and 13 primary students, is entitled to a DOTT time allocation as follows: Primary students a = 10/23 x 240 = 104.35 minutes (rounded) Pre-Primary students

b = 13/23 x 320 = 180.87 minutes (rounded)

Total weekly DOTT entitlement
a + b = 104.35 + 180.87 = 285.22 minutes (rounded) total weekly DOTT entitlement.

(6) An example of how to calculate the minimum DOTT allocation for 2021 is provided below:

A teacher in a district high school with a class of 23 students in 2021, where there are 10 primary students and 13 secondary students, is entitled to a DOTT time allocation as follows:

Primary students
a = 10/23 x 270 = 117.39 minutes (rounded)

Secondary students
b = 13/23 x 320 = 180.87 minutes (rounded)

Total weekly DOTT entitlement
a + b = 117.39 + 180.87 = 298.26 minutes (rounded) total weekly DOTT entitlement.

(d) If different public sector employees are the primary care giver of a child during different periods of time, their entitlement to paid or unpaid parental leave under this Clause or under any other public sector industrial instrument can be shared, but the total period of their combined entitlement to paid parental leave is limited to the paid parental leave entitlement of a single employee.

(e) If an employee is no longer the primary care giver of the child following the birth, their entitlement to any further parental leave in connection with the child ends, unless —

(i) the employee is entitled to remain on unpaid parental leave because they share responsibility for the care and supervision of their child or their partner's biological child under clause 39(5) - Special unpaid parental leave entitlements for employees who share responsibility for care and supervision of child; or

(ii) the employee is entitled to remain on parental leave under clause 39(11) -Parental leave where pregnancy ends without birth of living child, the child dies, or the child or employee hospitalised.

(i) an eligible casual employee; or

(ii) any other employee who has not completed the minimum period of service required by clause 39(6) for paid leave.

(d) The period of paid parental leave to which an employee is entitled can be extended by the employee electing to take double the amount of leave on half-pay.

(e) An employee has only a single entitlement, and not separate entitlements, to parental leave for children of a multiple birth or adoption.

(f) Parental leave for a fixed term contract employee cannot extend beyond the term of the contract.

(g) Any public holiday that falls during parental leave is counted as part of that leave and does not extend the period of parental leave.

(h) An employee who is on parental leave is not entitled to the day in lieu of Easter Tuesday.

(5) Special unpaid parental leave entitlements for employees who share responsibility for care and supervision of child

(a) An employee who shares responsibility with their partner or another person for the care and supervision of their child or their partner's biological child has the same entitlement to unpaid parental leave under this Clause as an employee who is the primary care giver for the child.

(b) An employee who commences unpaid parental leave under this clause does not have a separate entitlement to paid or unpaid parental leave if they become the primary care giver of their child or their partner's biological child.

(c) It does not matter whether or not the other person with whom the employee shares responsibility for the care and supervision of the child is—

(i) an employee to whom this Clause applies; or

(ii) the primary care giver for the child.

(d) Concurrent leave

(i) If an employee who shares responsibility for the care and supervision of a child takes unpaid parental leave under this Clause, they can take unpaid parental leave during the same time that their partner takes unpaid parental leave (concurrent leave).

(ii) The concurrent leave—

(aa) must not be longer than 8 weeks in total; and

(bb) may be taken in separate periods but, unless the employer agrees, each period must not be shorter than 2 weeks.

(6) Minimum period of service to be eligible for paid parental leave

(a) An employee is only entitled to a period of paid parental leave if, on the day parental leave commences, the employee has completed at least 12 months of continuous service in the public sector immediately preceding the parental leave, whether on a full-time or part-time basis.

(b) For the purposes of this clause, continuous service includes any period of authorised paid leave or authorised unpaid leave not exceeding 14 days. However, continuous service includes sick leave without pay whilst ill or injured not exceeding three months.

(c) For the purposes of this clause, continuous service includes a period of service as an eligible casual employee if —

(i) the eligible casual employee has become a permanent or fixed term contract employee with the same employer; and

(ii) any break between service as an eligible casual employee and service as a permanent or fixed term contract employee does not exceed 3 months.

(d) An employee who takes parental leave is not required to resume work for the purposes of taking parental leave in connection with any subsequent pregnancy or birth or adoption of a child.

(e) An employee on leave without pay unrelated to parental leave is required to resume work before taking paid parental leave.

(7) Taking Parental Leave

(a) An employee must take parental leave in one continuous period, except as otherwise provided by this clause.

(i) any period during which the employee substitutes other paid leave or time off as referred to in clause 39(14) - Interaction with other leave entitlements;

(ii) any period during which the employee engages in special parental leave employment as referred to in clause 39(16);

(iii) any period between periods of flexible parental leave taken by the employee;

(iv) any period between separate periods of concurrent leave taken by the employee;

(v) any period during which the employee does not take parental leave as referred to in clause 39(11) because the child is hospitalised after birth.

(c) An employee may, at any time but subject to the notice requirements of clause 39(8) —

(i) cancel or delay the commencement of their proposed parental leave; or

(ii) shorten their period of parental leave; or

(iii) extend their period of parental leave up to the maximum period of leave to which they are entitled.

(d) If an employee takes less than the maximum period of parental leave to which they are entitled, the unused balance of leave cannot be banked or preserved in any way.

(8) Employee required to give notice of parental leave

(a) An employee who intends to take parental leave must give their employer at least 8 weeks' written notice of—

(i) the date on which the employee proposes to commence the leave; and

(ii) the period of leave proposed to be taken.

(b) An employee who intends to change or cancel their parental leave must give their employer at least 4 weeks' written notice of the change or cancellation.

(c) However, an employee is not required to give notice of the cancellation of proposed parental leave because the pregnancy ends without the birth of a living child or the child dies.

(d) An employee who fails to give the required period of notice does not contravene this clause if it was not reasonably practicable for the employee to comply because of an early birth or placement for adoption or because of other compelling circumstances.

(e) An employee who has given notice of proposed parental leave is required to give their employer before proceeding on leave, reasonable evidence detailing —

(i) in the case of a pregnant employee – the expected date of birth (including by the provision of a medical certificate); or

(ii) in any other case – the relationship the employee has with the child and the employee's responsibility for the care of the child.

(9) Commencement of parental leave

(a) The period of parental leave of a pregnant employee in connection with the pregnancy can commence up to 6 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child, but not later than the birth of the child.

(b) However, the period of unpaid parental leave of the pregnant employee can commence on an earlier date before the birth of the child with the agreement of the employer and employee.

(c) The period of parental leave of any other employee can commence at any time on or after:

(i) the day the employee becomes the primary care giver of the child; or

(ii) for the purposes of clause 39(5) - Special unpaid parental leave entitlements for employees who share responsibility for care and supervision of child – the day the employee begins to share the responsibility with their partner or another person for the care and supervision of their child or their partner's biological child.

(10) Conclusion of paid parental leave

(a) The period of paid parental leave must conclude within the period of 12 months after the birth or date of placement for adoption.

(b) The employer can, in exceptional circumstances, allow an employee to take paid parental leave after that 12 months' period.

(c) An employer can require the employee to provide reasonable evidence that the circumstances justify the employee taking paid parental leave after that 12 months' period.

(11) Parental leave where pregnancy ends without birth of living child, the child dies, or the child or employee hospitalised

(a) A pregnant employee remains entitled to paid parental leave if the pregnancy ends without the birth of a living child within 20 weeks before the expected date of birth.

(b) A pregnant employee is entitled to remain on paid parental leave if —

(i) the child dies or is hospitalised following the birth; or

(ii) the employee is incapacitated as a result of the birth.

(c) An employee is not entitled to paid parental leave in the circumstances of clause 39(11)(b) for any period that the employee has taken paid sick leave.

(d) If a pregnancy ends without the birth of a living child within 20 weeks before the expected date of birth, an employee who would have been entitled under this Clause to unpaid parental leave if the child had been born alive remains entitled to that unpaid parental leave except when the entitlement would have derived from an adoption.

(e) An employee who has commenced parental leave can return to work by providing their employer at least 4 weeks' written notice of their return to work if:

(i) the child dies; or

(ii) the pregnancy ends without the birth of a living child within 20 weeks before the expected date of birth.

(f) If an employee has commenced parental leave and the child is hospitalised immediately following the birth, the employee can agree with their employer not to take parental leave for a period while the child remains in hospital (the permitted work period).

(g) Only one permitted work period can be agreed and it ends at the earliest of the following:

(i) the time agreed by the employee and employer;

(ii) the end of the day of the child's first discharge from hospital after birth;

(iii) if the child dies before being discharged – the end of the day the child dies.

(h) The employer can require the employee to provide reasonable evidence that the child has been hospitalised following the birth and that the employee is fit for work (including by the provision of a medical certificate).

(12) Provisions relating to payment of paid parental leave

(a) An employee entitled to paid parental leave is to be paid according to their ordinary working hours at the commencement of parental leave.

(b) In the case of a part-time employee, the employee is to be paid according to the average hours worked over the period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of parental leave if those average hours exceed ordinary working hours at the commencement of parental leave.

(c) An employee can elect to be paid in advance for paid parental leave or elect to be paid on a fortnightly basis during that leave.

(d) Allowances or penalties for shift or weekend work are not payable during paid parental leave.

(e) An employee who was in receipt of higher duties allowances for a continuous period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of parental leave is to continue to be paid the higher duties allowances during the first 4 weeks of paid parental leave. If the employee has elected to take parental leave on half-pay, the higher duties allowances are payable at the full rate for those first 4 weeks of paid leave only.

(f) If the employment of an employee who is being paid parental leave on half-pay is terminated through no fault of the employee, the employee is to be paid out any period of unused paid parental leave that is equivalent to the period of leave the employee would have accessed had they been on parental leave on full pay when their employment was terminated.

(g) An employee who takes a subsequent period of paid parental leave without returning to work is to be paid on the basis of their employment when they commenced the original period of paid parental leave and is not affected by any intervening period of special parental leave employment under clause 39(16).

(h) For the purposes of determining the amount of paid parental leave of an employee to whom clause 39(21) applied, the ordinary working hours of the employee are the ordinary working hours before the modification of or absence from work under that clause.

(13) Extension of period of parental leave

(a) An employee can apply to their employer to extend their parental leave by up to 2 years of unpaid leave after the end of the period of parental leave to which they are entitled under this clause.

(b) The period of extended leave is a period of parental leave for the purposes of this clause.

(c) Parental leave can only be extended after the employee has exhausted all other available paid leave entitlements.

(d) The employer must agree to an application for the extension of parental leave unless the employer has reasonable grounds to believe that agreeing to the application would have an adverse impact on the conduct of the employer's business or operations.

(e) Before a refusal under clause 39(13)(d) the employer must give the employee a reasonable opportunity to discuss the application.

(f) The employer must, as soon as practicable but not later than 21 days after an application for the extension of parental leave is made, give the employee written notice of —

(i) the decision of the employer to agree to or refuse the application; and

(ii) if the application is refused - the reasons for the refusal.

(g) An employee who believes that their application for the extension of parental leave has been unreasonably refused may seek to enforce it as a minimum condition of employment and, in that case, the employer has the onus of demonstrating that the refusal was justified in the circumstances.

(14) Interaction with other leave entitlements

(a) An employee entitled to unpaid parental leave may take any of the following to which the employee is entitled instead of any part of that parental leave—

(i) accrued student vacation leave;

(ii) accrued annual leave;

(iii) accrued long service leave;

(iv) accrued time off in lieu;

(v) flexi leave or banked hours.

(b) The period of any such substituted leave or time off—

(i) forms part of the period of unpaid parental leave otherwise authorised by this clause and does not extend the period of parental leave; but

(ii) is treated as paid leave and not unpaid parental leave for the purposes of clause 39(19) - Effect of parental leave on contract of employment.

(c) An employee is not entitled to sick, carer's or short leave during any period of paid or unpaid parental leave.

(d) Student Vacation Leave

(i) This provision applies to employees who are entitled to receive normal pay during a period of the student vacation.

(ii) Where a period of paid parental leave overlaps with a period of student vacation leave to which an employee is entitled, the period of student vacation leave is not counted as part of the paid parental leave, therefore extending the period of paid parental leave to the extent of the overlap.

(15) Communication during parental leave

(a) The employer must take all reasonable steps to inform an employee who is on parental leave of any decision that significantly affects the status, responsibility level, pay or work location of the employee and give the employee an opportunity to discuss the effect of the decision on the employee's position.

(b) An employee on parental leave must notify the employer of any change in their contact details that might affect the employer's capacity to comply with this clause.

(16) Employment during unpaid parental leave

(a) In this clause —

(i) "keeping in touch day" has the same meaning it has in the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) section 79A;

(ii) "special parental leave employment" means employment of an employee on unpaid parental leave—

(aa) that is of an intermittent nature or for a limited specified period (special temporary employment); or

(bb) that is casual employment (other than special temporary employment) on an hourly basis for a period not exceeding 4 weeks in any period of engagement (special casual employment).

(b) Despite anything to the contrary in this Clause, an employee on unpaid parental leave can be employed by their employer in special parental leave employment during that unpaid parental leave if both parties agree in writing to that employment.

(c) Without limiting this clause, any such parental leave employment can be employment for the purposes of a keeping in touch day.

(d) The following applies to engagement in special parental leave employment—

(i) only employees covered by this Award can be employed in special casual employment;

(ii) an employee can only engage in special parental leave employment during a period of unpaid parental leave that is not substituted with paid leave under clause 39(14);

(iii) in the case of special temporary employment – an employee can only be employed in connection with their substantive position;

(iv) in the case of special casual employment – an employee is to be employed at a level that is commensurate to the level of the available position under this Award or relevant Agreement;

(v) the period of service in special parental leave employment does not break an employee's continuity of service or change the employee's status in regard to their substantive employment;

(vi) in the case of special temporary employment - the period of special parental leave employment counts as qualifying service for all purposes under public sector industrial instruments;

(vii) in the case of special casual employment - the period of special parental leave employment counts as qualifying service for the ordinary entitlements a casual employee would have for engaging in casual employment but does not count as qualifying service for all other purposes under public sector industrial instruments.

(e) The following applies to the effect of special parental leave employment on unpaid parental leave—

(i) the period of special parental leave employment is taken to be part of the employee's original period of unpaid parental leave;

(ii) an employee who immediately resumes unpaid parental leave following a period of special parental leave employment is entitled to extend their period of unpaid parental leave by the period of that special parental leave employment (subject to giving the employer at least 4 weeks' written notice of the new date on which they intend to complete parental leave and return to work);

(iii) an employee who does not immediately resume unpaid parental leave following a period of special parental leave employment cannot preserve the unused portion of leave for use at a later date.

(17) Flexible unpaid parental leave

(a) An employee may take up to 30 days of their entitlement to unpaid parental leave in separate periods of one or more days each as follows ("flexible parental leave") —

(i) the flexible parental leave may only be taken within the period of 24 months after the birth or date of placement for adoption of the child;

(ii) the flexible parental leave may be taken after the employee takes other parental leave in connection with the same child.

(b) However, further unpaid parental leave (including any extension of unpaid parental leave under clause 39(13) cannot be taken by an employee after any flexible parental leave is taken by the employee in connection with the same child.

(c) If an employee takes flexible parental leave, the maximum period of parental leave to which the employee is entitled under this Clause is calculated on the basis that the employee takes all the flexible parental leave days in a single continuous period (on the assumption that the employee works each day that is not a Saturday or Sunday and there are no public holidays during that period).

(18) Return to work on conclusion of parental leave

(a) An employee who returns to work at the end of their parental leave is entitled to be employed in—

(i) the same position as the substantive position they held—

(aa) immediately before proceeding on parental leave; or

(bb) immediately before any modification of or absence from work under clause 39(21); or

(ii) a comparable position.

(b) An employee who returns to work at the end of parental leave can work on a basis modified from the basis on which they worked immediately before proceeding on parental leave. The modified basis can be part-time work, work on a job-share basis, work on different days or at different times (or both) or work on fewer days or for fewer hours (or both).

(c) An employee who returns to work on a modified basis can be subsequently required by the employer to resume work on the same basis as they worked immediately before proceeding on parental leave. Any such requirement can only be made if —

(i) the employer has reasonable grounds to believe that the continuation of work on that modified basis would have an adverse impact on the conduct of the employer's business or operations; or

(ii) the child has reached the compulsory education period under section 6 of the School Education Act 1999 (WA).

(d) An employee who returns to work on a modified basis can subsequently apply to the employer to resume work on the same basis as they worked immediately before proceeding on parental leave. Any such application must be made in writing at least 4 weeks before the employee wishes to resume work on that same basis.

(e) The employer must agree to any such application to resume work on the former basis, unless the employer has reasonable grounds to believe that agreeing to the application would have an adverse impact on the conduct of the employer's business or operations.

(f) The employer must give an employee written notice of the refusal of an application to resume work on the former basis and of the reasons for that refusal, within 21 calendar days of an application being received.

(g) An employee who believes that their application to resume work on the former basis has been unreasonably refused can seek to enforce it as a minimum condition of employment and in that case the employer has the onus of demonstrating that the refusal was justified in the circumstances.

(19) Effect of parental leave on contract of employment

(a) Paid parental leave counts as qualifying service for all purposes under public sector industrial instruments.

(b) The qualifying service is to be calculated according to the number of weeks of paid parental leave taken at full pay (or the number of weeks that would have been taken if the parental leave had not been taken at half pay).

(c) Employees who take paid parental leave on half pay do not accrue award, agreement or other entitlements beyond those that would have accrued had they taken the leave at full pay.

(d) Absence on unpaid parental leave does not break the continuity of service of the employee.

(e) In calculating a period of service for any purpose under a public sector industrial instrument, any single continuous period of unpaid parental leave—

(i) is not to be taken into account if it exceeds 14 calendar days; and

(ii) is to be taken into account if it does not exceed 14 calendar days.

(f) An employee on parental leave can terminate their employment at any time in accordance with any applicable provision of a public sector industrial instrument.

(g) An employer cannot terminate the employment of an employee on the ground that the employee has applied for parental leave or of their absence on parental leave, but otherwise any right of the employer to terminate employment is not affected by this Clause.

Special provisions relating to pregnant employees

(20) Fitness for work in current position

(a) If the employer has reason to believe that the continued performance of duties by a pregnant employee is a danger to the employee, fellow employees or the public, the employer can require the employee to provide a certificate from a medical practitioner stating that the pregnant employee is fit for work in their current position for a period stated in the certificate.

(b) The employer is required to pay for any examination by a medical practitioner for the purposes of issuing such a certificate.

(21) Modification of duties and transfer to safe job

(a) A pregnant employee can work on a part-time basis in accordance with this Award during any one or more periods if the employee provides the employer with a certificate from a medical practitioner stating that part-time work is, because of the pregnancy, necessary or preferable.

(b) The work on a part-time basis must be —

(i) work in the employee's current position or in a comparable position; and

(ii) on terms that are recorded in writing and in accordance with this Award.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed with the employer, a pregnant employee must give at least 4 weeks' written notice to the employer of their intention to seek a variation in the terms of their part-time work or to revert to employment on a full-time basis.

(d) If a pregnant employee is fit for work but it is inadvisable for the employee to continue to perform the duties of their current position for any particular period (the risk period) because of illness or risks arising from the pregnancy or because of hazards connected with their current position, the employer must, during that period —

(i) modify the duties of the employee; or

(ii) transfer the employee to a safe job in a comparable position (including a position with a different number of ordinary hours agreed to by the employee).

(e) The employer can require the pregnant employee to provide a certificate from a medical practitioner or other reasonable evidence that it is inadvisable for the employee to continue to perform the duties of their current position.

(f) If the employer considers that it is not reasonably practicable to modify the duties of the pregnant employee or transfer the pregnant employee to a safe job —

(i) the employee is entitled to be absent from work during the risk period; and

(ii) the employee is entitled to be paid the amount they would have reasonably expected to have been paid if they had worked during the risk period; and

(iii) the employee's leave entitlements are not affected by the absence from work.

(g) Any such entitlement to be absent from work extends to an eligible casual employee.

(h) Any such entitlement to be absent from work ends at the earliest of the following —

(i) the end of the risk period stated in the medical certificate or other reasonable evidence provided by the employee;

(ii) the end of the day on which the pregnancy ends (whether with or without the birth of a living child).

(22) Unpaid special pregnancy leave
